

Proclamation

of the City of Baldwin City, Kansas

WHEREAS: National Preparedness Month is a nationwide effort held each September; and

WHEREAS: The goal of the seventh annual National Preparedness Month is to increase public awareness about the importance of preparing for emergencies and to encourage individuals to take action; and

WHEREAS: No community is truly prepared for a disaster until every individual, family and business takes personal responsibility for preparedness; and

WHEREAS: The U.S. Department of Homeland Security, through its Ready campaign and Citizens Corps program, works with a wide variety of organizations, including local, state and federal government agencies and the private sector, to highlight the importance of emergency preparedness and to promote individual involvement through events and activities across the nation; and

WHEREAS: All Americans need to take some simple steps to prepare for emergencies, including getting an emergency supply kit, making a family emergency plan, being informed about different threats and getting involved in preparing their communities; and

WHEREAS: The flooding, record and near-record snowfall, severe storms, severe winter storms, straight-line winds and tornadoes in Central, Southeastern and Southern Kansas in 2010 illustrate the potential devastation to communities and highlight the importance of preplanning disaster response and sheltering operations; and

WHEREAS: The citizens of Baldwin City, Kansas should join with citizens across the nation to ensure we have taken the necessary actions, including accessing all available disaster preparedness information.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ken Wagner, Mayor of the City of Baldwin City, Kansas, with the support of the Baldwin City Council, do hereby proclaim the month of September, 2010 to be recognized as National Preparedness Month in Baldwin City, Kansas.

Ken Wagner, Mayor
