

Proclamation

of the City of Baldwin City, Kansas

- WHEREAS: Schools represent a major investment by any community; and
- WHEREAS: Teachers are among the most important part of our community's leadership; and
- WHEREAS: Schools represent a valued avenue of improving the quality of life in our city, state, and nation; and
- WHEREAS: Involved citizenry provide a most important facet in their community schools; and
- WHEREAS: There is a need for better communication and a more cooperative relationship between professional educators and the community.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ken Wagner, Mayor of the City of Baldwin City, Kansas, with the support of the Baldwin City Council, do hereby design and declare the week of November 15 – 21, 2009 to be recognized as American Education Week in the City of Baldwin City and urge all citizens of Baldwin City to reaffirm their commitment to improving and supporting education at all levels and translate this commitment into action by visiting our local schools.

Ken Wagner, Mayor

